BARRICADED IN HOUSE

Negroes Began Firing on Police Who Sought to Arrest Them.

Desperate Hand to Hand Encounter By Whites and Blacks.

By Associated Press.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 25.—In a desperate fight at close range between bicycle officers Smith and Maddox and policeman Case and two negroes, barricaded in a house near the corner of MacGruder and Randolph streets, this morning, the negroes were killed and the police officers had narrow escapes.

Officers Maddox and Smith had been notified that negroes were shooting in the vicinity of Houston and Randolph streets. When the officers reached there, there was no shooting. The officers were told that the difficulty was to the vicinity of Randolph and MacGruder streets. Whether this was a trap laid to kill the officers is not known but a negro pointed out a house in which he said a negro who had done the shooting had taken refuge.

The officers went to the house, Smith going to the rear door and Maddox to the front. Smith attempted to enter and the negroes began shooting. Maddox ran around the house to his aid, as he did so he saw two negroes leaning out of the window firing at them. The officers returned the fire and the negroes dropped below the window. Officer Case had come up in the meantime and the three charged the house. Maddox went to the window and pulled himself up, gun in hand. A pistol was fired to the left of his head. He fired point blank and dropped to the ground pulling the window with him. He then ran to the front door, followed by Smith, and as he opened the door, a shot was fired at him going just above his head. The officers then fired killing the two negroes.

An interview with Major Williamson of the state militia, who commanded the raid in Brownsville today, resulted in a statement substantially as follows: "Following the attack on a force of county police late last night, it was decided to raid what is known as Brownsville, including Clark university, an institution for negroes, which has in the past, received large support from northern philanthropists. With two companies of state militia, the governor's horse guards and a force of county officers and some citizens, Major Williamson carefully disposed his forces during the late hours of the night surrounding with a skirmish line the entire section covering about fifteen acres.

When daylight came and the negroes emerged from their homes, they were ordered to hold up their hands. Few had the temerity to disobey. Not a shot was fired by the troops, the only shot being fired by a citizen deputy, which wounded a negro in the foot. The two zealous officers were placed under arrest for disobeying orders. In this way about 400 negroes were captured, including professors and students of Clark university and other negroes not connected with the institution. Each one was searched carefully. If a prisoner was unable to give a plausible account of himself, if he was armed or manifested a belligerent disposition he was put under arrest and sent to the Fulton county jail. About 100 were so locked up. Among those arrested was the assassin of Policeman Heard, who was killed in the attack on the police during the early part of the night. With him were several witnesses to the shooting.

The total known dead as a result of last night's encounter, is reported as five negroes besides Policeman Heard and Mrs. R. C. Thompson, a white woman who dropped dead from the excitement of witnessing the shooting of two negro prisoners. Two of the dead negroes were tracked from the scene of the attack on the police to their homes by trail of blood. There they were found early today. Two more died at the hospital both shot during last night's fight and an unknown negro was found dead near the scene of the same fight.

Governor Terrell over the telephone, has just declared to The Associated Press that he does not believe it will be necessary to declare martial law but as a precautionary measure he intends during the day to order several companies of the state militia, probably four, to be in Atlanta by 8 o'clock tonight.

JEROME DOWN

And Out of the Contest for Nomination.

Delegates From Twenty-Five Counties Decide to Give Support

TO ADAMS OR GAYNOR.

Situation Is Simplified By Sending All Contests to Convention.

Tammany Hall Held a Caucus as Is the Custom.

By Associated Press.

Buffalo, Sept. 25.—District Attorney Jerome's candidacy for governor was practically withdrawn today at an adjourned meeting of the so-called Albany conference of anti-Hearst democrats. At the meeting which was attended by representatives from about 25 counties it was decided that the delegates opposed to the nomination of William R. Hearst, should concentrate on either Judge Gaynor or Mayor Adams, as expediency may require.

When at 12:20 o'clock State Chairman Meyer rapped for order and nominated Lewis Nixon of New York for temporary chairman, the hall was comfortably filled. Mr. Nixon was elected without opposition and as he was escorted to the platform there was a round of applause.

Mr. Nixon spoke briefly. The republican party, he said was entrenched in power in both state and nation. A state victory which he predicted, he said, would be a forerunner of national democratic victory. The platform of the state would he said be also a forerunner of the national platform.

When the necessary preliminary work had been completed the convention adjourned to 11 o'clock tomorrow, the session today having lasted 24 minutes.

BEVY OF PRISONERS

Eighteen of Them Murderers Engage in a Mutiny Against Jailer.

KEPT THE OFFICERS

At Bay For Four Hours and Only Police Arrivals Saved the Day.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Knoxville, Tenn., says: "Thirty-five negro prisoners including 18 murderers two of whom are sentenced to die, rebelled against the jailer at the Knox county jail last night, refusing to go from the corridor into their cells. For two hours they kept the officers at bay.

Although inclosed behind bars, four of the officers were cut with bottles thrown by the prisoners, and C. A. Reeder, Jr., aged 12, son of the sheriff, was slightly cut. The jailers turned the hose on the negroes but this frenzied them. The negroes finally captured the hose and turned it on the officers and then attacked the latter with bottles, plates, cups and saucers and with broomhandles on the end of which open knives were fastened. Three of the officers were hemmed in by negroes and had to draw their pistols in order to get out of range of the bottles. The arrival of the sheriff and police finally quelled the negroes.

The trouble is said to have been caused from the negroes reading the account of the Atlanta riots.

BEDLESS CELL

Occupied by Stensland Last Night.

Chicago Bank Wrecker Almost In a State of Collapse.

POLICE EXAMINATION

Given Him Same as Recorded Culprits In Jail With Him.

With Emotion He Expressed Anxiety to Return to Chicago.

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 25.—The discomfort of a night in a narrow and bedless cell which was experienced by Paul O. Stensland, the former president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank of Chicago, who was returned from Morocco last night a prisoner on the charge of wrecking the institution was followed by additional unpleasant details of police examination. Stensland was lined up at the police headquarters with a score of alleged pickpockets and others who had been arrested during the night and was subjected to the customary examination by the detective-sergeants. This ordeal over he was removed to the identification bureau where he was measured, and later his photograph was taken to be placed on file at police headquarters.

An early visitor to Stensland's cell was his son. The two conversed together until the summons came for the father to appear before the central police men. The former bank president, spent a sleepless night and was in a condition of semi-prostration. Stensland during the night told one of the officers who were watching him that he wanted to go back to Chicago, and would have done so had not he been arrested in Tangier.

"I want to straighten out matters," said Stensland. "There is a good deal behind this case and I want to show the public that I am not the black sheep I have been painted."

Stensland made a voluntary statement to Police Inspector McLaughlin today. There was visible emotion and with tears falling down his cheeks the ex-bank president said: "I made some bad investments and they did not act as quickly as I thought they would. They were not paying. The man under me—the cashier I mean—took advantage of the situation and he got more than I. All I got was $500,000, but I don't know what the other man got. The money I went away with was a few thousand dollars that I made in a real estate speculation last summer. I had been always in hope of paying the money back, but I suppose all is lost. I am suffering from asthma. I want to get back to Chicago just as quickly as possible."

Stensland who had recovered somewhat from his prostration was able to walk with detectives from police headquarters to Third Avenue, where a street car was boarded on the way to the criminal court building. The trip was made without special incident.

Arrived at the district attorney's office the detectives and their prisoner were shown into the office of Assistant District Attorney Chas. Lockwood. Sergeant Diefenthaler had the extradition document which had been signed by the governor of New York and the governor of Illinois. These were placed before Assistant District Attorney Lockwood as that official proceeded to waive the rights of the state of New York to hold Stensland and formally turn him over to the Chicago authorities.

Stensland was not handcuffed and was allowed to walk along, by the side of the detective.

Watching Confederates. Chicago, Sept. 25.—Although the states attorney would not give out the names of the men who are said to have been implicated in the frauds perpetrated at the bank by the confession of Stensland, a number of detectives were sent out today to watch them and prevent them from leaving the city.

Evidence of Crime. Chicago, Sept. 25. State Attorney Healy announced today his intention of sending Assistant States Attorney Barbour from his office to meet Paul O. Stensland and Assistant States Attorney Olsen who has him in charge.

SIX REPORTED DEAD

And Score Injured In Collision On Minneapolis & St. Paul R. R.

BOTH ENGINE CREWS Killed and Passengers Only Rescued By Villagers After Hard Work.

By Associated Press.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 25.—Six are reported dead, and a score or more injured in a rear end collision on the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad yesterday afternoon, at New Prague, Minn. Both engine crews were killed.

The crash attracted to the spot a large corps of volunteer rescuers from the village but in as much as all the passenger cars were destroyed or piled on the mass of wreckage it was full two hours before all the imprisoned passengers were released.

A FIRELESS COOKER

Experiments In Army With New Invention Prove It Good.

IS LIGHT IN WEIGHT

And at One Filling Will Supply Food For a Company.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Under the direction of Commissary ex-General Sharpe of the army, experiments have been made at the practice camps this summer and fall of a fireless cooker. The cooker has been used by the army for some time in an experimental way, but this fall it has been tried under severe service conditions. The results have been particularly satisfactory both to the officers of the commissary department and to the men in the field.

The cooker now in use has four compartments and weighs empty about 120 pounds. It will hold twenty gallons of food, enough to supply a meal to a company of infantry or a troop of cavalry.

On outpost duty, the troops have found the cookers invaluable, because as no fires are permitted on outposts, the men would have to eat cold rations were it not for the cookers.

DESSERTERS BY THE WHOLESALE.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Marines have been deserting the barracks on Mare Island, Cal., at a rate which has made it necessary for Brig. Gen. Elliott, commanding the marine corps, to detail a second lieutenant and several experienced enlisted men as a squad whose sole duty it is to search San Francisco for deserters from the marine corps.

So great has been the demand for laborers in San Francisco that representatives of labor agencies have been visiting Mare Island and urging the marines to desert the service and engage at work in San Francisco where able bodied men are paid as high as $5 a day for wheeling brick and mortar and doing other work necessary to clear up the city of debris.

Racked with pain and financially helpless the famous commander is dependent on the fraternal help which his old army comrades give, but he is far from despondent over his trials.

For six weeks the general has been confined to the hospital ward. He is 73 years old, his right eye is sightless and his right arm useless, but he still is buoyed up with the indomitable courage and the fire and spirit that carried him to the head of Sherman's cavalry in the '60's.

GRACE CHURCH

Is to Retain Rev. C. C. Kennedy

And Rev. Cook Remains the Pastor of Second Street M. E. Church.

OVER IN SOUTH LIMA.

Funeral of Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Morris Held This Morning.

Wedding at St. John's Church Tomorrow Morning. Other Notes.

Rev. C. C. Kennedy, pastor of Grace M. E. church, returned from Bowling Green yesterday afternoon, where he attended the Methodist general conference.

Members of Grace church will be pleased to learn that their able and beloved pastor has been returned to them for another year.

Rev. Cook remains as pastor of the Second street M. E. church, over which he has successfully presided during the past year.

Another matter of interest to south side readers in connection with the conference, is the fact that Rev. E. T. Bowdler, of south Elizabeth street, has been ordained an Elder.

Rev. Kennedy reports that the meeting just ended was the most pleasant and most harmonious he has ever attended, and that fewer changes in pastorates were made than in any preceding session.

Funeral of An Infant.

At the south side Church of Christ this morning, at 9:30, Rev. Geo. Sims preached the funeral of Samuel, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Morris, after which the remains were taken to the Fairmount cemetery, in Anglaise county, for interment.

Tomorrow's Wedding.

Rev. Father Rupert will solemnize the wedding of John Sullivan, of south Main street, and Miss Julia Casey, of Tanager avenue, at St. John's church at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning, and all the contracting parties are well known and enjoy the friendship of all who know them, the event will be largely attended.

Remarks on Fire.

The fact that the department was called yesterday afternoon to put out a fire which threatened the destruction of a bill board, brought forth many remarks, and here are a few: "Pity it wasn't a board bill."

"Some of the bill boards are warm members, all right."

"Evidently the bill board was fired for the purpose of preventing the nude female who represents Cascarets, from catching cold."

"Somebody better put a blanket over that poor girl on the bill board south of the bridge, or take her in out of the cold. That gauze sheet is hardly enough these nights."

"One is compelled to gaze upon that disgusting picture every time he or she turned around; even in the street cars."

"Too bad if one of those unsightly things, a bill board, caught fire. They speak so well for a city the size of Lima."

People, as a general rule, don't admire these "picture galleries" strung

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old in these days of strenuous competition. It is necessary to maintain as long as possible one's youthful appearance. It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxuriant growth of hair. The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness. Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure. Accept no substitute—there is none. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Indicates No Choice at Saratoga.

Ex-Governor Black Will Take Honor If Handed to Him on Platter.

THE NAME OF HEARST

Who Had Friends Among the Delegates Almost Started a Row.

Reference to Independency From Bosses Brought Loud Laughter.

By Associated Press.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 25.—There has been no such crystallization of sentiment for any one candidate for the republican nomination for governor of New York as to make it possible to predict with accuracy the choice that will be made by the republican state convention which will be called to order at noon today. Ex-Governor Frank S. Black has developed some strength, but he is quoted as saying he will be a candidate only on the unanimous demand of the delegates, and New York county, with 150 votes is alleged to be opposed to him and for Chas. E. Hughes, the insurance investigator. Lieut. Gov. M. Linn Bruce's friends are hopeful that he will be chosen as he has some friends in the New York county delegation and as Mr. Hughes' strength in the upper state is said not to be great.

Ex-Governor B. B. Odell, chairman of the committee, called the convention to order at 12:30 o'clock. After some preliminary business the committee on temporary organization submitted its report naming Representative Michael E. Driscoll, of Syracuse, for temporary chairman.

Hearst Had Friends.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 25.—When Mr. Driscoll mentioned the name of Governor Higgins, the convention cheered heartily, but a little later, when Mr. Driscoll spoke of the administration of state affairs having been "independent of bosses" there was a roar of laughter. State Chairman Odell, whose eyes were wandering over the audience, turned quickly and looked sharply at the speaker but his face showed no emotion.

When Mr. Driscoll mentioned the name of William R. Hearst, a hiss started. The speaker demanded to know what such a man as Mr. Hearst could have in common with the laboring man, and a young man interrupted, exclaiming:

"He sacrificed all."

The interruption was not generally heard, but a little later he cried:

"But he sacrificed fifteen million dollars."

"Sit down. Put him out," delegates all over the hall began to shout.

"You let me speak, young man," said Mr. Driscoll, "and after I get through you can talk."

"No, he can't," shouted a Kings county delegate.

On motion of Chas. Anderson, a colored delegate from New York city, deputy collector of internal revenue and a member of the republican state committee a resolution denouncing mob violence was adopted.

The routine business being concluded, the convention took a recess until 11 a. m., tomorrow.

AT ST. ROSE CHURCH

A Pretty Fall Wedding Occurred at 6:30 O'clock This Morning.

A CHARMING BRIDE

Claimed By Ticket Agent W. H. McGrievy, of the Pennsy.

William H. McGrievy and Miss Mary C. O'Brien, two of St. Rose's most popular young people, were united in Holy wedlock at St. Rose church this morning at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. A. E. Manning sang the nuptial high mass and performed the marriage ceremony. During the services the St. Cecilia choir, with Miss Anna Finn presiding at the organ, discoursed beautiful music. A large concourse of the friends of the happy bride and groom were at the church to witness the happy event.

The bride wore a navy blue traveling suit, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of American beauties. They were unattended. A wedding breakfast was served in four courses to about forty relatives and friends of the happy couple at the bride's home on north Elizabeth street. The decorations at the home were green and white. Miss Maria McGoff received the fortunate piece of cake which contained the ring and Miss Margaret O'Connell caught the bride's bouquet which she cast into a bevy of pretty girls, just before she left on her wedding journey.

The groom is the local night ticket agent for the Pennsylvania railroad company, and is one of the most obliging and popular agents in the employ of the company. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke O'Brien, of north Elizabeth street and has been, until recently, the license clerk in Probate Judge Hutchinson's office. They were the recipients of a large number of elegant wedding presents.

The out of town guests at the wedding were: Miss Mary Hughes, of Dayton, and Miss Southard, of Goshen, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. McGrievy left over the P. Ft. W. & C. at 10:17 amid a deluge of rice and old shoes for a wedding trip to Chicago and St. Paul and will be at home to their friends after October 15, at 411 east Wayne street where the groom has had a cosy home furnished in advance.

COLONEL IKE HILL

One of the Noteworthy and Quaint Characters of This State

IS BEFORE HIS MAKER.

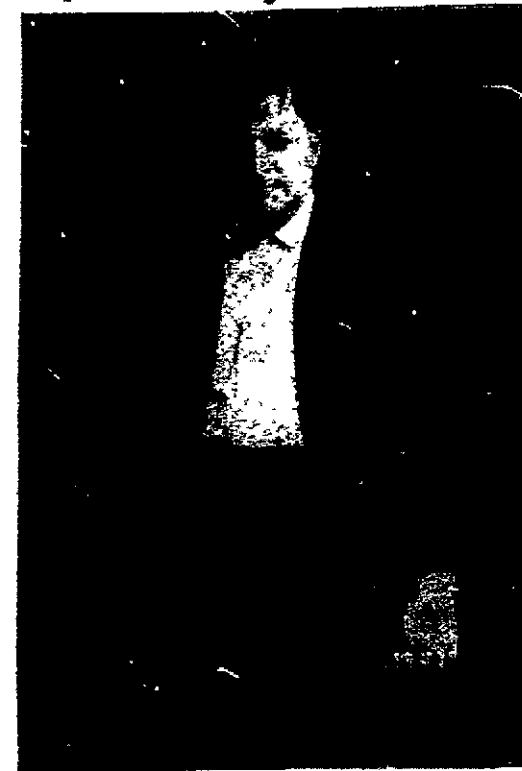

Death Came to Him In Washington About One O'clock Today.

By Associated Press.

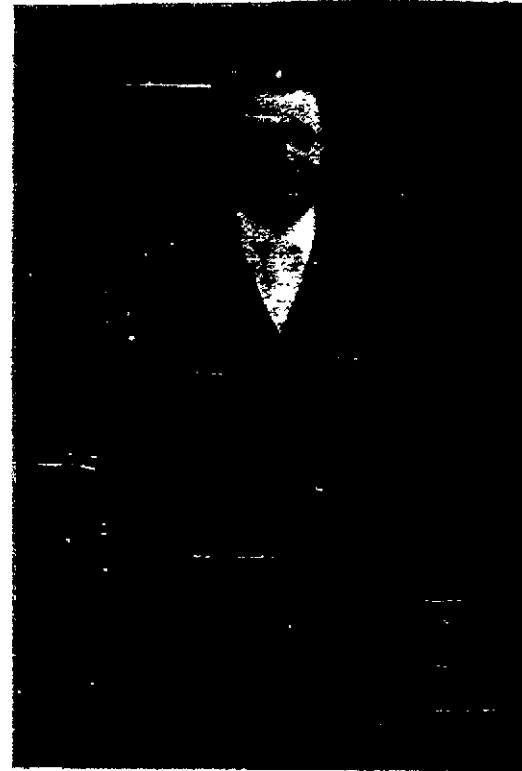

Washington, Sept. 25.—Colonel Isaac R. Hill, better known as Colonel "Ike" Hill, of Ohio, and for thirty-five years an employe almost continuously of the house of representatives died at 1:30 o'clock today at his apartments in this city from a complication of kidney, liver and heart trouble.

For many years Col. Hill has been a familiar figure of the national capital. For fifty years Colonel Hill was a notable figure in Ohio politics and later in the politics of the nation. He enjoyed an extensive acquaintance among public men of all political affiliations and was held in cordial regard. His quaint sayings made him a general companion and his rugged, old fashioned adherence to the tenants of the democratic party as declared by its national conventions endeared him to party associates. He was an intimate personal and political friend of the late Allen G. Thurman and the late John G. Thompson, of Ohio, and under their tutelage he studied politics.

His death will be mourned by thousands.

PIQUA TO MEET LIMA

In the First Game of the High School Footballists.

ANOTHER LEAGUE TIE.

Fight In the American May Yet Draw In the Cleveland Club.

According to the Piqua call, two games have been arranged with the high school football teams of that city and the local gridiron lads of the Lima school. Next Friday will probably see the opening of the football contests, with the locals to go to Piqua, and that team to return the game here on November 2nd.

The American league is still enjoying its annual half-raising finish. Detroit defeated New York yesterday, while Chicago disposed of Boston, again making those two clubs tied in the league race. In the meantime Cleveland is moving along winning every game and is now but five games behind the leaders. Lima fans are rooting for Cleveland to slip in and claim the pennant, but the race ends next week, the Ohio club's chances seem slim.

The Grand Circuit opened its closing week of the year at Oakley park, Cincinnati, yesterday. Grace Direct, of the Baxter stable was started in the 2:13 pace, which had seventeen starters, and she finished far behind the money. Fred Miller, a favorite here in July, the Indianapolis horse on which a bundle of tickets were torn up, took second place and money in the race. Governor Francis won the Horse Review futurity stake, and Blue Hill the two year old trot. Sweet Marie went to two breaks and failed to negotiate a fast mile.

Payments for the stake events here next week have been coming in bunches, and the field of starters eligible yet remains large. The entry lists will be published Saturday for the entire meeting. Starter Newton, who officiated here last year, has gone down the Grand Circuit with great credit, and is at Oakley for the wind up now.

Taft and Bacon Both Disgusted

With Petty Tactics of Cuban Leaders and Abandon Hope of Peace.

PALMA AND ADVISORS

Sternly Reject All Terms of Peace Though They Were Favorable.

Investigation Proves That the Elections Were Rot-ten to the Core.

By Associated Press.

Havana, Sept. 25.—1:30 p. m.—Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon informed the Associated Press this afternoon that they were thoroughly disgusted with the petty methods of the government leaders here and the American commissioners admitted that they had practically abandoned hope of bringing peace from the turmoil unless by the use of force. Mr. Taft said: "The government officials, instead of co-operating with us to save the republic, have resorted to every kind of obstruction with the object of continuing their control of the administration. President Palma and his advisers have rejected terms of peace which were honorable to them, though in the form of a compromise with their opponents. We are still striving to arrange a settlement and we trust the American people will give us credit for doing everything possible to accomplish a settlement without resorting to force. I cannot say that we are hopeful, for I have never known a more disgusting situation. Investigation convinces us that the elections were thoroughly rotten. We do not intend to intervene but may be compelled to do it. Our reports show that the insurgent commanders have lost control of their forces, which are now lawless bands that at any moment may loot and burn. The situation seems to demand the use of force."

The American commissioners have decided not to keep their engagement to revisit President Palma because of his attitude today.

Secretary Taft added that the terms agreed upon retained Palma as president but he had listened to the bad counsel of his cabinet ministers who were less fortunate.

The situation here has been cabled to President Roosevelt.

Preparing for Crisis.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The greatest efforts are being made to reinforce the American marines now in Cuban waters and there have been almost continuous conferences for the last twenty-four hours between the chief of the navigation bureau and the commandant of marines relatives to the speedy transportation of this advance guard of the American forces which is to occupy the Cuban ports in the event that the pending negotiations at Havana fail.

As a result one thousand extra marines were ordered to be assembled at once at Atlantic coast points preparatory to sailing for Havana.

THE FLOATING DEBT

Of the City of Lima as Shown By Returns to the Auditor.

MORE THAN A MILLION

Of This Over a Quarter Million Represents the Street Paving.

County Auditor George Feltz is just compiling the returns of the various cities, towns and townships in the county showing the indebtedness of the various localities.

He has compiled that of Lima and it shows the city to be indebted in the sum of $1,114,113.26, with monies on hand to apply to this sum in the amount of $63,960.14, the bond issues represented run through the years as late as 1927.

It is to be noted of this total that over a quarter of a million is represented by street paving improvements, assessable against the property, and being paid off by individual property owners on tax days. The exact amount of paving improvements included in the debt is $253,113.26.

In addition Lima school district has a not bonded indebtedness as returned to the auditor of $150,000.

THE STAGE.

The Orphium has a vaudeville show this week which is well worth any persons time to see. The bill throughout is of a high class and entirely confirms the statement made by Manager Williams last week, that each of the acts would be "head liners." The fun is started this week by Dora and La Bart, who manipulate an acrobatic turn sufficiently strong to draw great applause from the house. Johnnie and Mamie Conroy come next with a good song and dance sketch.

De Camo and his intelligent fox terrier Cora, follow with an act no one should miss. James D. Donovan, the Frenchman (?), further strengthens this week's bill with his thoroughly clever monologue. His act will amuse all sorts and all ages.

Harvey and Doane are next in the list with a comedy sketch of high degree. Mr. Harvey is a comedian of ability and possesses a tenor voice of merit. He is funny and yet at no time trite.

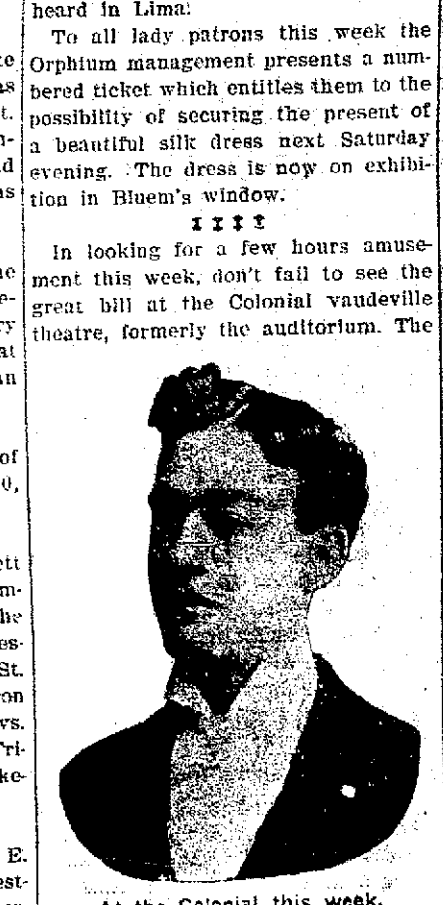

Helen Keller adds more laurels to her list this week with the illustrated song "when the Frost is on the Pumpkins, Maggie Dear." Manager Williams is to be congratulated in obtaining the services of such a clever songstress.

Motion pictures are interspersed throughout the bill this week and the idea is a capital one as there is a chance of them becoming tiring to the eyes if too many are run off in succession.

Cole and Coleman, to finish the main part of the program this week, present for Lima's approval, a musical comedy turn. Suffice it to say the hundreds of Lima people who heard this act last night surely do approve, and hope to see this great act sometime soon again. The blackfaced member of this act knows how to entertain without becoming a bore and his imitation of Creator is great. The xylophone, they perform with is the sweetest toned instrument of its kind ever heard in Lima.

To all lady patrons this week the Orphium management presents a numbered ticket which entitles them to the possibility of securing the present of a beautiful silk dress next Saturday evening. The dress is now on exhibition in Blum's window.

In looking for a few hours amusement this week, don't fail to see the great bill at the Colonial vaudeville theatre, formerly the auditorium. The bill this week is mostly musical, and the choice is a good one, for Lima as a city is mostly musical, a condition of which people here can be justly proud. And yet, the quality of music presented for public approval is getting to be more and more taken into consideration, the standard higher. The bill at the Colonial, which opened for a week's run is worth seeing. It is opened with an Irish comedy sketch by Herby and Curran, whose burlesque on Roman soldiery makes a hit.

Madame Belloni follows in a song act which is pleasing to any one who can appreciate technique. The Levy family carry off the honors this week with an act which is entirely entertaining. Bert Marshall, who was on the bill at the Colonial last week, is still at the old stand this week, replacing his black face act with one of a German "yap." He is ably assisted by a dainty bit of femininity by the name of Anna Golde, who carries out the doll effect to a fine point.

Burton and Rankin have a military sketch, interspersed with music which is very effective, especially to those of patriotic turn of mind.

Ethel May, in illustrated song, "Where the Oregon Rolls," will gain in popularity as the week advances.

STEAMER LEAK CAUSED MUTINY.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 25.—Fireman on the steamer C. B. Hill formerly the Anchor liner Delaware and on her first trip of the season from Cleveland to Fort William with package freight, notified yesterday when the boat was abreast of Belle Isle and refused to keep up steam unless Captain J. H. Coleman agreed to return to Detroit. The steamer sprang a leak in a heavy sea in Lake Erie and took in some water at the stern. The firemen claimed she was unseaworthy.

Captain Coleman after a conference with the men returned to this city and tied up at wharf. The captain says that the leak did not amount to anything and that no members of the crew except the firemen made any complaint.

 The power of the platform fairly glows in the reader in its indus-

 Oblong, Ill., Sept. 25.—The usual activity is being shown in the Crawford county oil field, although many of the wells are only being drilled to the sand, and they will remain until the pipe line facilities are in shape to care for the production. Some of the oil men are adverse to stopping at the sand and are drilling in their wells.
 J. C. McKnight, of Kansas City, has leased his 200-acre farm, north of Oblong for a bonus of $6,000 and 25 wells to be completed as fast as they can naturally be drilled by continuous labor of one string of tools. The lease takes with it a sixth royalty.
 In Oblong township, Crawford county, E. M. Treat & Co's Nos. 4 and 5 J. W. Good farm, in the southwest quarter of section 16, flowed 300 and 180 barrels respectively. Robt. Roy, farm, section 15, and has a 70 barrel

 150 barrels. The Riddle-Nickel Oil company's No. 3 Ledbetter-Newitt farm, section 11, is a gusher. The Guncheon Oil & Gas company's No.
 1 M. A. McClain farm, section 35, is looked upon as the heaviest gas well yet drilled in the Illinois field, and is rated good for 10,000,000 cubic feet.

In Martin township.
 In Martin township, Crawford county, the Watford Oil & Gas company, formerly credited as the Guncheon Oil & Gas company has drilled in Nos. 3 and 4 Doolittle farm,

 4 is credited with 100 barrels. The Red Bank Oil company and others have drilled in No. 3 F. Donnell farm, in the northeast quarter of section 22,
 and it produced 125 barrels. The Ohio Oil company's No. 1 on the A. H.
 Jones farm, in the northwest quarter of section 33, produced 200 barrels, and extends the field or rich pool a short distance to the southwest.
 Bruner, Brown & Hognes No. 1 W.

 quarter of section 27, produced but 20 barrels, but is considered a good find at that, being south of the rich pool a short distance.

 on the J. Z. Price farm, in the southwest quarter of section 8, produced

white No. 3 is good for 50 barrels in Licking Township.
 In Licking township, Crawford county, and in the northeast corner of the county, about 12 miles north of Oblong, Seyfrang and others had a real duster in a test on the John Nash farm, to the north of the Nash duster, in section 2, same township, the Brockton Oil company, on Breckton, Illinois, drilled in a test well on the Samuel Fitch farm, and it has a showing for better than a 25 barrel producer. This well is an important wildcat venture, being far in advance of developments.
 About half a mile north, and in the same section, Willett & 19th have drilled in a small producer on the Chas. F. Ault farm. The Fredland Oil & Gas company and Nolan have drilled in a duster in a test on the C. E. Wilson farm, in the northeast quarter of section 3, same township.
Other Crawford County Tests.
 Unknown parties have drilled in a test well on the J. W. Armstrong farm, in the northwest quarter of section 34, Montgomery township, Crawford county, just to the southeast of the hamlet of Moses, 12 miles east and 3 miles south of the famous Sike pool. The well proved a tank duster.
 This well is about 6 miles west of the Wabash river.

In Honey Creek township, Crawford county, the Minnesota Oil company has drilled in a gas well on the Paul Frost farm, in section 20. G. W. Long is drilling a test well on the Callahan farm, in section 27, and about 3 miles southeast from New Bedford.
 In Hutchinson township, Crawford county, the Ohio Oil company has drilled in a test on the John Ritchie farm, in the northeast quarter of section 34, and adjacent to the hamlet of Hunsenville. It also proved a duster.
 Bowley Optimistic.

N. H. Bowley, of Findlay, was home over Sunday from the new oil fields near Chatham, Ontario, Canada, says
 the Findlay Republican:
 "Mr. Bowley is one of the Ohio pioneer operators of the Dominion country, in fact drilled in the second well in the Tilbury pool. He is quite enthusiastic over the outlook for that country and is very much in favor with the people and the prospects.
 The firm with which Mr. Bowley is associated has the largest holdings of any firm in Canada and the best production.

"He thinks there is a great future ahead for the oil industry in Canada and believes that within the next few months a number of new pools will be discovered in different sections of Ontario, which will rival Casey in their richness."
 "Said he: 'There are fifty strings of tools in operation south of Chatham at present and the next few days will mean much for the business in Canada. It will tell whether we have really located an oil field or a small pool. The excitement now is principally over the Halliday well, several miles north of production, which has developed into an eight million gasser.'
 The owners are afraid to drill a deeper on account of getting oil on water and will seek a gas franchise from Chatham, where they will pipe
 the gas."

"Mr. Bowley and associates have under lease 1200 acres in tested territory on which they have eleven strings of tools in operation at present. His firm also has 30,000 acres under lease surrounding the pool in every direction so it will be very difficult for the grange to get away from them whichever way it leads out."

SESSION OVER

The Methodist Conference Closes Its Work.

Rev. David Bowers, of This City, Given a New Honor.

PRES. MILLER TALKS

At the Closing of the Day's Work of Church Divines.

Appointments Include New Pastor for the Epworth Church.

The Central Ohio Conference of the Methodist church, which has been in session at Bowling Green for the past week, closed its work last night. The next annual session will be held in Broadway church, Toledo. D. C. Yoder was appointed editor of the conference for the secular papers during the conference.

This is the first time in the history of the conference that such action has ever been taken, and is the result of the efforts of the newspaper men to get hold of the appointment in advance of the official announcement and the inability of the press to handle as much of the personal news of the conference as some of the ministers thought should be used.

Dr. C. C. Miller, of Lima College, delivered an address to the conference during the day's program, while an honor came to the Rev. Dr. David Bowers, of this city, in his selection to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. L. A. Belt, as a trustee of Ohio Northern University at Ada. The Epworth league institute was placed at Lakeside for next year, and N. W. Stockstill chosen president of the conference organization of this branch of the work.

Rev. A. H. Weaver, who filled the vacancy of Epworth church on Bellefontaine avenue, at the death of Rev. Clay, was formally appointed to the pastorate of that local church.

Local and district appointments were made as follows:

Lima District—David Bowers, presiding elder, Lima; Allentown, E. L. Day, supply; Celina, P. P. Pope, Celina Circuit; C. M. Baker; Convoys, C. M. Monosmith; Cridersville, W. R. Buton; Delphos, J. B. Gottschall and J. B. Ascham; Dixon, Samuel Rise, supply; Elida, O. Shreve; Fort Recovery, J. H. Butler; Harrod, J. H. Smith; Kalida, J. Parlette; Lima Epworth, A. H. Weaver; Grace, C. C. Kennedy, Second church, D. R. Cook; Lima Trinity, T. H. Campbell; Mendon, H. J. Keister; Middlepoint, A. M. Crist; Ohio City, M. C. Wisely; Rockford, W. W. Carl; St. Johns, K. L. Smith; St. Marys, C. Lindsey; West Curo, D. M. Kelly; Willshire, J. A. Hoffman.

In the Findlay district, Rev. E. D. Whitlock was re-appointed presiding elder, with pastors assigned as follows in towns near Lima: Deaverdam, J. A. Holmes; Bluffton, E. D. Smith; Columbus Grove, W. J. Green; Lafayette, R. J. Beard.

CEDAR POINT CLOSED

Over Million People Visited the Resort.

Cedar Point has closed for the season of 1906, says the Sandusky Register.

With the blowing of the big siren whistle Sunday night at 11:30 the most successful season in every way in the history of the big resort, came to a close. The season was an eventful one in many ways, and lasted 107 days, which is longer than any previous season by nearly two weeks. While the exact figures are not available, it is known that more than a million people visited the famous resort during the summer. This immense number of tourists and excursionists were handled on the boats of the Cedar Point line without a single accident—truly a remarkable record.

SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Examines Plans For the Proposed Public Safety Building.

NO REPORT YET MADE.

Committee Will Hold Another Session During the Week.

A meeting of the special committee of citizens appointed by the city council a week ago, to go over the plans and propositions relative to the proposed construction of a new public safety department building at High street and Central avenue, was held in the city council chamber last evening with Messrs. C. H. Cory, Theo. Roush, Jos. Askins and Ed. Christen present. Mr. J. D. S. Neely, the other member of the committee, was called to Columbus yesterday afternoon and could not be present at this meeting. The two members of the board of public safety, Clerk Foster, of the board and Architects Dawson and McLaughlin were also present, together with Clerk of Council O. J. Rose, who is clerk of the special committee.

The plans and specifications for the proposed new building were gone over thoroughly and the architects explained every detail very thoroughly. The members of the committee were evidently pleased with the plans but whether or not they will recommend an additional appropriation by the city council, in order to build in accordance with the present plans remains to be determined. Another meeting of the special committee will be held later in the week, when Mr. Neely will be able to attend, and it probable that a formal report to the council will be prepared at this meeting.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.
A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Wm. M. The "Burning" Question.

This refers to two things: A young man who intends marriage, hesitates because the expense seems so big. Says he to himself: If I had $300 to $400 for furniture, I would get married. Here is where we can help him solve the problem. By paying a little down and a little each week or month, he can furnish a home. Ask hundreds of our customers whom we have helped in just that way.

The other "burning" question is the STOVE QUESTION. These crisp, sharp early Fall mornings, that puts new energy into a man, also reminds him of winter days a-coming. So prepare!

The Hot Blast Air-Tight Florence

burns soft coal or slack and all the smoke and gasses. No filling up of the stove, pipe or flue with soot. No dirt inside or outside the house. It will burn hard coal and all the gasses which escape from the hard coal base burner. It will burn wood and sawdust, wet or dry. It will produce one-half less ashes than any other stove on earth with any kind of fuel and leave no clinkers or half consumed fuel. We will put them out on trial to prove our statements.

NAVAL ANNALS

A Glance at the Pages of New Register

Discloses Many Names Made Illustrious By Valor In Past Years.

OLD FIGHTING STOCK

Still Has Representation Among the Officers, In Best of All Navies

Who Are Ready and Compe- tent to Uphold the Nation's Honor.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 25.—A glance at the pages of the newly issued official list of officers of the United States navy giving the name, rank and present duty of the 2,500 warrant and commissioned officers of the navy shows that some of the most famous names in the annals of the United States navy are still to be found on the active list of this department.

Many of the ships of war that will come to the Jamestown Exposition to be held at Hampton Roads near Norfolk, Virginia in 1907 will have among their officers men bearing these famous names. Many of the owners of these celebrated patronymies are either direct descendants of the men who first made the names famous or else relatives through collateral descent. Some of the bearers of the famous names are no relation to the men who have made those names famous. Others have gained their claims to fame in other military service than that of the United States. It is none the less interesting, however, to notice how many Drakes and Nelsons there are among the officers of Uncle Sam's navy.

The first name which has already been big in public fame to appear on this long roll of honor is that of Ensign W. David Worth Bagley, who is a brother of Worth Bagley who was killed on the decks of the torpedo boat "Winstow" while bravely fighting in the harbor of Cardenas, Cuba, during the Spanish American War. Ensign Bagley is now attached to the gunboat "Concord."

A few names below on the list on the naval register is the name of Midshipman Arthur Barney who bears a name made famous by a gallant American seaman in the war of 1812. There are three Barneys still keeping on the naval list another name made famous in the same war.

Still farther down the list is the name of Augustine Tontant Beaugard a relative of the General Beaugard who attained fame on the Confederate side in the Civil war. He is a member of the first class at the Naval Academy and hails from Texas. The name of Commodore Belknap, who was prominent in the troubles in which the United States was involved for many years along the Asiatic coast is still borne on the rolls of the navy by Ensign H. B. Belknap, a lieutenant commander and James L. Belknap as assistant surgeon.

The name of Commodore Riddle another hero of the war of 1812 is still carried in the United States navy by William P. Riddle, a colonel in the marine corps and Clement D. Riddle, a surgeon. Blakely's name is recalled by Lieutenant John R. Y. Blakely, Ensign Charles A. Blakely and Boatswain Frank D. Blakely.

The military fame of the Capron family attained in the Spanish American war is recalled by the name of Midshipman Webster A. Capron who recently resigned from the navy. There are seven officers bearing the name of Davis so the naval fame of Davis is reasonably secure. Below the name of Davis appears in alphabetical order the name of Leonard J. De Ryder, which although spelled differently recalls the gallant Dutch admiral who swept the British from the narrow seas of the British Channel.

Below his name appears that of one of the most gallant sailors who ever lived. There are four Drakes in the navy register. Thus the name of the man the Spanish branded as a pirate and whom good Queen Bess said was a man after her own heart is well represented in what Fred T. Jane ranks as the second greatest fighting navy in the world. The name of Fremont, the Pathfinder of the Rockies is commemorated by that of Commander John C. Fremont, his son, and Lieutenant John C. Fremont, Jr., his grandson. That of Commander Foote, famous for his operations along the Mississippi river during the Civil war is recalled by Percy W. Foote, an ensign now attached to the cruiser "Baltimore."

Paymaster McGuffin R. Goldsborough's name recalls that of the commodore who was active in the operations of the Federal fleet along the southern Atlantic coast during the Civil war. The name of Commodore Hull who whipped the British ship "Guerrilla" in the war of 1812 is recalled by that of Harry F. Hull, an assistant surgeon and Lerop C. Hull, a gunner. The name of Commodore Lawrence is still recalled by William W. Lawrence, a midshipman of the first class at the Naval Academy.

Esch Hopkins, the first secretary of the United States navy is represented still by William Hopkins, a captain in the marine corps. Sydney S. Lee, a second lieutenant in the United States marine corps, is a grandson of the famous soldier, Robert E. Lee. A son of General Arthur McArthur, Lieutenant Arthur J. McArthur, is now attached to the battleship "Ohio." Douglas C. MacDougal is a lieutenant in the marine corps. He is a son of that Douglas MacDougal who in 1864 in the Corvette "Wyoming" while looking for the Confederate Privateer "Shenandoah" in the straits of Shimonoeki, nearly whipped single handed three Japanese steam frigates which had already whipped a Dutch and a French squadron combined. The Japanese vessels attacked him while the "Wyoming" was ashore. Nothing daunted however, MacDougal with well directed shots pierced the boiler of the biggest Japanese ship, the "Lancefield," which had to draw off. The others, a bark and a brig, were soon obliged to turn tail and run for the shelter of the forts. Mackenzie's name is still born on the rolls by Rear Admiral Morris R. S. Mackenzie and Allan S. Mackenzie, a chief gunner. The famous name of Manly is found among the M's of the register. Midshipman Matthias E. Manly is now attached to the battleship "Kearsarge." There are five Nelsons in the navy but none of the name of Horatio. There are three officers of the name of Morris in the navy. Midshipman Joseph M. O'Brien recalling the famous name and fame of O'Brien resigned from the navy last year. The likewise famous name of Nicholson is also recalled in the persons of Commander Reginald F. Nicholson now attached to the bureau of navigation and Paymaster Rishworth Nicholson, now attached to the Mare Island navy yard, in California.

The Battle of Lake Erie is recalled by the name of Rear Admiral Thomas Perry, retired and Pharmacist's Mate Louis Perry, now attached to the receiving ship "Bahsh" at the Boston navy yard.

The most brilliant name of the navy list today is that of Porter. There are three descendants of Captain David Dixon Porter, who commanded the frigate "Essex" in her famous cruise in the Pacific in the war of 1812. David Dixon a great grandson of the Captain Porter, of the "Essex" is now a captain in the marine corps and at present stationed at Annapolis. Carlyle P. Porter, a grandson of the first Captain Porter, is a retired Lieutenant Colonel in the United States marine corps. Theodore Porter, a captain in the navy, is another grandson.

In the person of Walter E. Noa, a Lieutenant, the United States navy boasts of having a lineal descendant of the first seafaring man known to history. In the lapse of centuries the letter H has been dropped from the end of his name but that does not impair Lieutenant Noa's value to the marine corps to which he is attached. The name of Preble who commanded the squadron sent to subdue the Barbary pirates is recalled by the name of Frank H. Preble, a chief carpenter.

That of commander Rodgers who quelled the Barbary pirates, is born by five U. S. naval officers, ranging in rank from Rear Admiral Frederick A. Rodgers down to Ensign John A. Rodgers. There is a Selfridge on the list in the person of Duncan I. Selfridge, now attached to the battleship "Virginia." Two names below in alphabetical order is the name of John P. Semmes, a second lieutenant in the Marine corps. There are five Stewarts in the navy, three midshipmen and one ensign. Robert E. Thornton, of famous name is a midshipman in the third class at the naval academy. The laurels of John Paul Jones will be well looked after there by any frigate in which the U. S. navy is involved for there are no less than seventeen Jones in the list of officers. The laurels of the Smith family are equally well protected for there are forty-seven Smiths among the officers of the navy.

Richard A. Wainwright, Jr. is a son of the man who commanded the Gloucester in the battle of Santiago. The battle between the Merrimack and the Monitor is recalled not only by the appearance of the name Bachanan, who commanded the Merrimack but also the name Worden recalling that of the commander of the Monitor. Until recently there has always been in the navy a representative of the Trustum and Decatur families.

The American need not fear there is any diminution of the old fighting stock in the navy. There are still plenty of able officers ready and competent to uphold the honor of the flag.

A cold taken at this time of the year is generally hard to get rid of but it will not be able to withstand the power of the "Laxative Honey and Tar." THE TABLES OF STONE

A Curious Calculation From the Talmud and the Bible.

Did you ever figure on the probable size and immense strength of Moses, basing your calculations on the dimensions of the tables of stone, as given by the Talmudic writers? In the Talmud (folio 28, column b) it is said that the tables of stone upon which the commandments were written were six ells long, six ells broad and three ells thick. In the Bible, Exodus xxxiii, 15, we are told that "Moses went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand."

"Hand," mind you, not hands, though it must be admitted that it would have taken a strong pair of hands to perform the task of carrying them, even on the level. Now, we will put the Talmudic and the Biblical accounts together and apply the mathematical rule. The Hebrew ell or cubit was, at its least estimate, a measure of eighteen inches, which would have made each of the tables a stone block nine feet long, nine feet wide and four and one-half feet thick. If common stone weighed as much to the square foot then as it does now the tables would tip the beam at about twenty-eight tons! Was Moses one of the giants of those days or has some one made a mistake in calculations or in the statement of supposed facts?—Exchange.

SARDINES.

The Way They Are Cooked and Prepared for Market.

Sardines are caught in nets, and after being well washed the heads are cut off and the fish are sprinkled lightly with salt. After lying for a few hours they are placed on grids in rows almost perpendicular. The frames are then placed in pans containing boiling olive oil. The oil is changed as soon as it becomes too black and dirty for continuing the cooking process.

As soon as the fish are considered sufficiently cooked, they are withdrawn from the pans of oil and the grids are placed on the tables covered with zinc, the surface of the table inclining toward a groove in the center. The oil is thus carried to a vessel prepared to receive it. Round the table stand the women whose business it is to pack the fish closely and uniformly in boxes.

The boxes being full, the fish are covered with fresh oil and the lids are then soldered down. Thus hermetically sealed they are placed in iron baskets and immersed in boiling water. The smaller boxes are thus boiled for half an hour and the larger ones somewhat longer, in proportion to size of box. The fish are then ready for the market.—Pearson's Weekly.

The Wearing of Hats.

More or less of a modern habit is the constant wearing of hats. Even as late as 1768 Horace Walpole mentions as a matter of course that he never wears a hat. "Remember," he says, writing to a friend notoriously careless about his dress, who was expected home from Holland, "everybody that comes from abroad is supposed to come from France, and whatever they wear at their first reappearance immediately grows the fashion. Now if, as is very likely, you should through inadvertence change hats with the master of a Dutch smack in a week's time we shall all be equipped like Dutch skippers. You see, I speak very disinterestedly, for, as I never wear a hat myself, it is indifferent to me what sort of a hat I don't wear."

Dangerous.

A contributor to the "Transactions of the Devonshire association" says that when he came to a certain place as vicar he asked whether there were any sick to be visited.

"Oh, no, sir," was the answer, "Nobody is ever ill in Berrynarbor. There is an old man, to be sure, over ninety, who has taken lately to his bed, but there hasn't much the matter with him that I know of."

"I thought to myself," added the vicar, "of the story of the Scotchman who said to his doctor: 'Ye pu' a vera long face, doctor. D'ye think I'm dangerously ill?' 'Na, na,' was the reply, 'I don't think ye're dangerously ill, but I think ye're dangerously old.'"

Trees.

Authorities on forestry say that seventy-five years are required for the oak to reach maturity; for the ash, larch and elm, about the same length of time; for the spruce and fir, about eighty years. After this time their growth remains stationary for some years, and then decay begins. There are, however, some exceptions to this, for oaks are still living which are known to be 1,000 years old.

Possibilities.

"But," protested the first dear girl, "I haven't got the face to ask a favor of him."

"Well," rejoined dear girl No. 2, "you might visit a complexion specialist and have your face remodeled."—Chicago News.

MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS.

SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well known. Even the cultivated Indian has learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted to get well as soon as possible that he might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "popose root" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weakness. Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful arrangements peculiar to women.

Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Tender-ness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not be unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work a harmless agent, being more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful arrangements peculiar to women.

GLOBE SIGHTS.

Poor old Colonel Cantaloupe! He has lost his popularity.When a married woman gets a real nice dress, what an event it becomes.There never was an air castle that was built with any consideration of salary.When poets talk of the "mante of night," do they mean a night shirt or pajamas?Hot biscuits soaked in chicken gravy, are mighty good and mighty indigestible.When a horse gets sick, men will desert any kind of work to sit around and watch it.Worms are becoming larger every day; finally they may become as large as dragons and carry off people.When your ship finally comes in the cargo will be more valuable than your long wait.We still contend that the funniest thing in the world is cheap painting for cheap shows.Don't place too much dependence on promises made by base ball players and circus men.There is one thing about automobiles. Owners are not out anything for hitting straws.What would become of the Salvation army if the guitar and bass drum factories should fail?About the only advantage that Catarrh has over Kansas is that in Catarrh you never have to worry about the weather when you get up a picnic.A girl may talk of entering a col-event when she is disappointed in love, but the only time she thinks seriously of it is when her hair comes out.When the bald spot at the back of a man's head shows beneath the rim of his hat, somehow it looks as bad as when a woman's skirt slips away from her belt.

THE IDLER.

For Du Lac is going to be a poor place for "drunks".

The common council passed a resolution that pictures of habitual inebriates be posted in the saloons. Bartenders will thus recognize their two constant patrons and will be expected to refuse them when they approach the dispensing bureau. If they do serve them the bartenders will probably be prosecuted.

This posting order has caused no little amusement, for it is believed that each of the saloons of the city will have a gallery of celebrities which will be as attractive as a gallery of stage beauties.

Now the question is where the bartenders will put the pictures. It has been suggested that they hang them behind the bar and thus form a fine relief to the rows of festive bottles which are found in most places of this character.

Then, again, the law has caused much terror to a number of gilded youths of the town who fear that they might break unexpectedly into the unpleasant society of tramps, roost abouts and other too well known citizens. A number of them consider going to Oskosh, Neenah and Menasha, where they could get their drinks without fear of exciting publicity.

For the past four weeks the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Cross, of Jamison avenue, has been the scene of a family reunion, all of their six children, with their families, having visited them at some time during the month. The last of the visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Behrhorst, left yesterday for their home in Avalon, Pa.

The other guests were Mr. C. W. Cross and Mrs. Clifford J. Cross, of New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kiplinger and son, Walter, of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cross and family, of Geneva, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bauehaus, of Milwaukee, and Mr. Mrs. R. B. Crane, of Toledo.

Edward Lanfair, one of the pioneer citizens of Mercer county, and former mayor of Celina, was the guest of friends here yesterday.

We cannot help but admire the enterprise of the people of Wapakoneta. The people of that village go after everything in sight, and if there was such a thing as getting the earth they would be Johnny-on-the-spot. Their latest triumph is the capturing of the branch cigar factory of Lima. A snug bonus was paid to procure the industry, but the business men at the county seat never shy at a little thing like that. They go down into their pockets and produce the wherewithal with good grace. It is a commendable spirit of enterprise, and might be profitably patterned after in other towns.—St. Mary's Leader.

SHELBY COUNTY MAN HAD NO OPPOSITION

Republicans Nominate
John C. Rosser

As Candidate For Congressional Honors From the Fourth District.

SESSION WAS BRIEF

And Resolutions Endorsed the Two Senators From Ohio.

E. R. Foster Made Member of the Congressional Committee.

The republican Fourth District congressional convention was held in the lower court room at two o'clock this afternoon with about fifty delegates and spectators in attendance. There was very little speech making, no blare of trumpets and no enthusiasm that could be noticed and even Allen county, after being honored by the congressional committee with the convention, turned out only a handful of delegates and fewer spectators. Among those who were present to represent the convention county were men of both the Quail and of the anti-Quail factions. There was nothing in the convention for the Quail crowd for, since the failure of Quail's recent county convention in which he refused to allow his delegates to endorse Senators Dick and Foraker, Allen county is not on the pie counter map. The present organization is on the "renegade" list and felt the cold shoulder of the Dick men who came from Shelby, Darke, Mercer and Auglaize counties and controlled the convention.

O. E. Harrison, of Darke county, was named by the committee as temporary chairman of the convention and he, in addressing the delegates, declared that the nominee of the convention should be voted for by the democrats of this community because the hog combine of Auglaize county had every office in the district parcelled out for the next ten years, leaving no opportunity for the democrats who are not favored by the combine. He also declared that the republican party had accomplished all the good that has been done in this great country since Columbus discovered it.

W. H. Chapman, of Mercer county, was selected as secretary and after the temporary organization had been made permanent, by motion, the roll was called for the naming of a committee on resolutions and the members of the new congressional committee. The result was as follows:

Resolutions.
Allen County—H. D. Campbell.
Auglaize County—Wm Keenan.
Darke—Albert Wagner.
Mercer—W. F. House.
Shelby—J. E. Russell.

Congressional Committee.
Allen County—E. R. Foster.
Auglaize County—W. O. Smith.
Darke County—John F. Fox.
Mercer County—W. H. Chapman.
Shelby County—Dr. C. E. Johnson.

The committee on resolutions retired to prepare a report, and during its absence impromptu speeches were made by Thomas H. Jones, of this city, and Judge Vollrath, of Bucyrus. The report of the committee on resolutions endorsed the present national and state administration and dwelt at great length on a criticism of the democratic fourth district organization with an effort to draw the so-called Hog Combine into the political limelight. The resolutions were adopted and the secretary was then instructed to call the roll of counties for the presentation of the names of candidates for the congressional nomination. Not wishing, however, to tramp too hard on the toes of Boss Quail and his crowd, the committee on resolutions inserted a clause which referred to the two Ohio senators and the report was adopted without a dissenting vote.

When the roll was called for the presentation of candidates names, Boss Quail announced that Allen county had no candidate and the call proceeded until Shelby county was reached and then the name of the present republican county auditor of that county, John C. Rosser, was presented and there being no other candidate, the nomination was made by acclamation.

COLLEGE MEN UNDER LAW'S EYE.

By Associated Press.
Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 25.—2:30 A. M.—Deciding that the negro students, 500 in number, who live in the campus of Clark University are responsible for and executed the attack on the officers in south Atlanta last night, the military authorities have sent 150 men under the command of Col. Clifford Anderson, to the scene. They expect to surround the campus, capture and search all the students and punish the guilty ones.

ON WEDNESDAY

Mr. Whitney, the Missing
Ex-Soldier,

Is Reported to Have Been Seen On a Road East of the City.

STILL HAD A BASKET

And Was Walking Into the Country Near the Infirmary.

A Search Is Now Being Made Throughout
Bath Township.

Although the search of the police and others still continues, no tidings have yet been received concerning the whereabouts or the welfare of Henry Whitney, the aged man who disappeared from his home at the rear of the Douse block, on south Main street a week ago yesterday. Yesterday afternoon, Sergeant of Police Armstrong and Roy Wetherill, son-in-law of the missing man, searched several woods northeast of the city, to which Mr. Whitney was said to have been directed by a friend, but no trace of the man was found and the searchers returned to their homes last night. Another searching party visited several strips of woods south of the city but were no more successful than those who went in the opposite direction.

A new clue was found this morning by the police and Mr. Wetherill. A man named Doty, who knows Mr. Whitney, reported that he saw the missing man the morning he is said to have disappeared—a week ago Monday—walking west on the Erie track and seeing that he was in his shirt sleeves and was carrying a basket, remarked to his wife that Mr. Whitney must have gone to work at the refinery. Then a report came in from a man named Shindler who states that he saw Mr. Whitney on Wednesday morning, still carrying the basket, walking out the Pindlay road a short distance east of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad crossing. Inquiry at the county infirmary brought no tidings of the man having been seen in that locality and today a search between the city and the infirmary and at other points in Bath township was instituted.

INSURANCE MAN PLEADS GUILTY.

By Associated Press.
Ashtabula, Ohio, Sept. 25.—J. S. Sewell, secretary of the Ashtabula county underwriters association, who was recently indicted with about thirty other fire insurance agents charged with operating a trust, entered a plea of guilty today and the statutory fine of $250 was imposed. The other indictments were quashed.

THE STEEL TRUST HAS A COMPETITOR.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 25.—As a result of experiments being carried on by the government at the old Lewis and Clark fair grounds in this city, Bessemer steel has been reduced from the ordinary black sands found at the mouth of Columbia river.

SCHIFF MARKED FOR A TARGET.

By Associated Press.
New York, Sept. 25.—Jacob Schiff of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb and company, was informed last night at his country home that secret service men in Philadelphia had seized a bomb in that city wrapped in paper and addressed to him in New York.

A previous attempt upon Mr. Schiff's life was made on August 18, of last year, when a cylinder, packed in inflammable cotton and filled with gun powder, was sent to his New York office. A clerk, who regarded the package as suspicious, soaked it in water before opening it. No clue to the sender of the bomb was ever discovered.
